OFFICIAL NEWS RELEASE

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Aladdin Hotel, Kansas City 5, Mo.

RELEASE: KANSAS CITY, Mo., March .--John Nelson, sharp-shooting basketball player-scholar from Portland State College (Ore.), has been named winner of the 1965 Emil S. Liston Award, presented annually by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA).

The award, which is given in memory of the late Emil Liston, athletic director at Baker (Kan.), who was the founder of NAIA, is presented to a junior basketball player who has excelled scholastically and on the basketball court as well.

Nelson was presented with his award Sunday night at the Tipoff Banquet of the 28th Annual NAIA Basketball Tournament, which was attended by more than 500 persons, including all 32 teams participating in the tournament this week.

A graduate of James Madison High School in Portland, where he earned All-City and All-State honors, Nelson chose to attend Portland State where his father, Loyal Nelson, is head basketball coach. For three years, John, who is 6-3, has led Portland State in scoring, averaging 23.7 points a game this season to lead the Oregon Collegiate Conference.

Nelson was named to the NAIA District 2 All-Star team as a freshman and again last year as well as being named to the NAIA All-American honorable mention list. As a sophomore he earned the Carlo Sposito award for a combination of athletic and academic achievement and the Morris Rogaway trophy as his team's most valuable player.

Nelson has made the Portland State honor roll four of the last five terms with a grade point average of 3.6 for his last 77 hours and has an over-all average of 3.32. He plans to enter law school after graduation.

The Emil Liston award consists of a beautiful plaque and a $300 scholarship to be applied to his expenses during his senior year of college.

Nelson and his wife, Sandra, both made the trip to Kansas City for the Tipoff Banquet and plan to attend the first two days of the National Tournament.

BASKETBALL

The NAIA National Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament was inaugurated in 1937 at Kansas City, Missouri as an eight-team tournament.

It was expanded to a 32-team bracket in 1938 and the tournament has remained in that format since, with the exception of 1944, when no tournament was held because of World War II, and 1945, when the bracket was reduced to 16 teams because of war-time travel limitations.

The tournament, then known as the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball (NAIB) Tournament, was the first national championship tournament in the sport conducted by a national collegiate body.

The National Intercollegiate Tournament is conducted under the guidance of the NAIA Basketball Committee and is still the key event in the NAIA program. It has been the model from which all other NAIA events have derived their structures.

An all-time NAIA Tournament attendance record was established in 1964 as 65,821 persons turned out to see the six-day classic. On the final night as Rockhurst (Mo.) claimed the championship, 10,783 spectators watched the action at Municipal Auditorium. The previous tournament attendance mark was 59,873, set in 1954.
